Dear Ella

I'm writing to you from M'batto. I am back from Assoumoukro where I spent my vacation for one month. I met friends who welcomed me with smile and glee. They permitted me to spend unforgettable moments. Just one day after my arrival, we went hunting in the traditional forest.

The following day, my uncle taught me how to set trap. Later, we went fishing in the nearby river. My aunt used to send me to the well to fetch water. Afterwards, a big football tournament was organised in the neighboring village. We took part in that tournament and won it. Every afternoon, we ate pounding yam pounded by my aunt. She sometimes cooked stew with yam, tomatoes and meat. Every Monday, we went to farm. I could not work hard in farm like my cousins because I was not accustomed. I just watered crops.

To conclude, I can say that I had a wonderful time there because the village is a suitable place to rest and to have fun. I spent wonderful moments there. Write me back soon. I'm waiting for your letter.

Yours Ehounou
