

CORRECTION SHEET

PART ONE (30%)

LV1 - Anglès

A - VOCABULARY CHECK

Column A	Column B
1. disposed of (Line 2)	k. emptied, discharged
2. chartered (Line 2)	a. freighted
3. allegedly from (Line 9)	j. because of
4. agreement (Line 12)	c. accord
5. stressed	h. said with insistence
6. liability (Line 15)	i. responsibility
7. file (Line 18)	f. bring a claim to justice
8. hazardous (Line 21)	g. dangerous
9. forge (Line 22)	e. falsify
10. concealed (Line 24)	d. hid
11. compel (L26)	b. oblige, force

B / COMPREHENSION CHECK

1. False (L3)
2. True (L3)
3. False (L3-4)
4. False (L9)
5. True L11-12)
6. True (L13)
7. True (L7-8)
8. False (L20)
9. True L(9-10)
10. True L23)
11. True (L24-25)

PART TWO: LANGUAGE IN USE (30 %)

A/ Use “so” or “such” to transform the following sentences.

Do like in the example: 6. It's so difficult to turn one's back to corruption.

1. The waste dumped in Côte d'Ivoire was so toxic.
2. The organisms of people near the dumps were so affected.
3. The Prime Minister at that time was so shocked.
4. It was such a bad mistake.
5. They are such invading people.

B/ Ask a question corresponding to the underlined words or expressions.

1. The company had concealed the nature of the waste.

What had the company concealed?

2. Trafigura sent two of its executives to Abidjan in August 2006 to investigate.

a) Where did Trafigura send the representatives to?

b) Why did Trafigura send the representatives to Abidjan?

3. People began to suffer from a range of illnesses.

a) Who began to suffer from a range of diseases?

b) What did people begin to suffer from?

D/ Filling in the gaps with prepositions.

In Côte d'Ivoire, the government announced earlier this month that all locations affected (1) by the dumping of toxic waste have been cleaned...In (2) in 2006, tanker trucks illegally dumped several hundred tons of toxic waste (3) into open-air spots in and (4) around Abidjan. The waste came (5) from the vessel Probo Koala, chartered by Dutch oil trading firm Trafigura...Trafigura has always denied being liable (6) for that. In 2007, it agreed to pay (7) over $160 million (8) in exchange (9) for being exempt (10) from future prosecution. It paid an extra $37 million to settle a court case (11) in the U.K. two years later. The money was meant to be used to clean the dumping sites and compensate the victims. But a lot of victims still have not received any compensation, said the president of an association of victims.

Example: 1. in

- |               |         |         |           |          |
|---------------|---------|---------|-----------|----------|
| 1. by         | 2. in   | 3. into | 4. around | 5. from  |
| nom 2. 6. for | 7. over | 8. in   | 9. for    | 10. from |

PART THREE: WRITING (40%)

The evaluation will take into account: the pertinence and coherence of ideas, the organisation of the ideas, the correctness of the grammar and the use of an adequate vocabulary. Line limit should be respected.

Instructions for Task 1:

The evaluation will take into account: the pertinence and coherence of ideas, the correctness of the grammar and the use of an adequate vocabulary. Line limit should be respected.

- The subject is an introduction of a guest speaker.
- The candidate greets the audience, then describes his feeling because he has been chosen to introduce the guest.
- He may say why the club has invited the guest.
- The portrait of the guest from CV.
- He may start like this: Dear fellow English club members, without any further ado, please, let's welcome Mr Joseph BACO, with a standing ovation.

Instructions for Task 2

The evaluation will take into account: the pertinence and coherence of ideas, the organisation (introduction, body and conclusion), the correctness of the grammar and the use of an adequate vocabulary. Line limit should be respected.

- It's an argument essay.